

Salvation Road
Acts 9 v1-19

Our God can...

Saul-Pauls' journey of transformation

God wants us to see that the most unlikely people can be rescued!

1 Saul was confronted by the Christ

Saul comes low to the feet of Jesus!

2 Saul was comforted by the Church

The risk in going to Saul, the reward in going to Saul,

3 Saul was confirmed by the change

The change was obvious, the attitude was clear, pride was challenged & humility birthed in Saul!

The change was ongoing! Are you going on being changed?!

Christ, church and change are what is invited of us...

Never doubt it: Jesus saves!

GRAPEVINE for this week... Sunday 24th November 2019!

Today in our 0830 Johnny is preaching at St Paul's and also in our 1030 at St Peters, with Ian leading and preaching at our St Paul's, 1830 service continuing in Mark 4.

Twelve new comfortable blue chairs with arm-support are now in place for the good of our seniors at St Peter's particularly!

Anne would like to thank all the many church members who so generously supported her sale: £1,621 has been raised for TESS - so far! Everything will remain on display until the end of the week, so do pop round to 5 Spring Vale Close if you haven't been able to make it so far 077522 92391. You are changing lives!

Our windows and painting in the old school house at St Peters, is almost finished and a deep clean will follow: all part of getting our house in order!

Advent materials are available today in print form, and on our church website in the 'whats on' area, with all copies of the ++John Sentamu book gone, with further copies available from Amazon or other providers....
